Dear CFRW Members,

Before we know it November 6, 2012 will be here and we will be wondering where the time went. Since the Supreme Court handed us a great debate issue we need to use it to our advantage. We will make every effort to give you talking points each week in the Capital Update.

Our goal for the remainder of this year is to work and work hard in getting Mitt Romney elected as the next President of these United States. Regardless of whether or not he was your first choice as President is mute at this point. Jointly he is our candidate. No candidate regardless of funds available to them can do it alone. WE are their Army of Volunteers. If you live in an area that is not a majority Republican, and you need to be a bit subtle in your voice, put a baseball mitt in your back window with a huge 2012 painted. Subtle but effective.

During the time you are staffing fair booths, headquarters', doing voter registrations in front of stores, encourage the women to join your Clubs. Put that Federated spirit to work, be enthusiastic and excited to be a Federated Woman. WE can double our membership, this year and reach our goal of 100,000 in 2013.

We are also excited to have a fantastic representation of CFRW Members as Delegates and Alternate Delegates attending the Republican National Convention in Tampa Bay. There are also members attending as Guest. Make sure you look for us. We will make a huge difference and it will also be our opportunity to encourage those women attending to become Federated members.

Many thanks to Northern and Southern Division Clubs who have kept me busy these past few months. Had the opportunity to meet the members of Northern Division at their Spring Conference and Campaign School. Southern Division’s June meeting was full to capacity. I also had the opportunity to become reacquainted with my dear friend Dr. Barbara Stone, who continues to educate us with her humor.

Again, thank you for the opportunity to serve as your President. You are totally the very best this nation has to offer. You are all strong women of conviction and care about this Country.

We truly are ONE TEAM, ONE PURPOSE, ONE GOAL: MITT ROMNEY PRESIDENT with 100,000 strong women leading the way.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!

Save this date—October 19-23, 2012. Plan your trip to Fresno for the CFRW Fall conference. It will be held at the Holiday Inn Downtown. Room rates are $97.00 per night plus tax. We plan on having a Boots on the Road Rally, just prior to the November election.

Watch for more updates as we continue to work and finalize our plans. As CFRW Vice President Central, I have been very busy, as we all have, on voter registration, club activities, planning for working our booth at the upcoming Fair, visiting clubs, speaking at a few of them and whatever else comes my way. I am excited as I feel we have an excellent chance of regaining the White House.

Work, work, work. It will pay off.

DOTTIE SCHLOSSER, Central Division President

Hello Ladies,

Well the Primaries are over and Mitt Romney our Republican Candidate can use all the help we can give, and it is critically important that we register as many Republicans as possible to get Mitt elected so he can work on getting our country back on track.

In May, I visited Estero Bay Club, their speaker was a member of the Tea Party, she spoke on what the Tea Party was all about, and was very informative. I also visited our Central Coast Club and their speaker was Chris Mitchum running for United States Representative – 24 District. I also worked at the Paso Robles Club’s Yard Sale fund raiser, they are great because they are all profit.

Membership - Our total membership for 30 clubs as of to date is 1,796, we are short 363 members from last year. If each club could bring in 12 members, I am sure we could get 3. We really need to reach or pass last year’s total membership. Ladies invite a friend and buy their lunch, or give a membership to a friend. It is extremely important that we keep Central Division’s membership up.

The following clubs met or passed their membership from last year:

- Bakersfield
- Fresno County & City
- Latinas United
- Tracy
- Turlock

We have a few clubs that are very close to meeting their membership. Presidents lets’ see your club on next month’s list!!!!

Ladies with this being election year, we have had problems in a few clubs, PLEASE READ YOUR CFRW BYLAWS! ARTICLE V – “ETHICS” – SECTIONS 1 thru 4, we must go by our CFRW BYLAWS.

Have a wonderful July 4th.
ROSEANN SLONSKY-BREAULT, Northern Division President

Our Northern Division Spring Conference, “Leading The Way to Victory” was a great success. Conference Chair Kay Young and the clubs of Santa Clara Valley Region worked hard to make this one of the BEST Northern Division Conferences ever.

The weekend started with the Honorable Lynne Leach presenting her very popular Campaign School on Friday, May 4. Our informative conference speakers included CFRW President Carol Hadley, CFRW Advocate Allison Olson, ND Victory 2012 Chair Janet Gardner, many local candidates, CRP Chairman Tom Del Beccaro, and Banquet Speaker, Larry Greenfield, who shared important information about our “National Defense and The 2012 Election”. We were especially honored that NFRW President Rae Lynne Chornenky attended our conference, inspired our members and reminded us about what a powerful organization we all belong to, the National Federation of Republican Women, over 70,000 members strong! The weekend included a lively President’s Reception, the perfect opportunity to relax with friends, share ideas and make new friends. We also hosted an exciting and very successful Silent and Live Auction on Saturday and on Sunday morning!

Our members went home feeling informed, inspired, empowered, and emboldened to go out and work to elect our Republican candidates on the local, state, and national level and elect Mitt Romney out next President! Together we will win back our country and continue to pass on the American Dream to our children and future generations!

Northern Division is proud to have a number of our clubs celebrate important anniversaries in 2012 as Federated clubs.

NANCY EISENHART, Southern Division President

Southern Division is a veritable bee-hive of activity. We have too many clubs to highlight more than a few, but judging from the large turnouts at our “Road Show” meetings (over 200 attendees at each of our three meetings since February), our women can’t wait for the November election to take place and we get a shot at Restoring America, our theme for the year.

Our trio of Red Books is making a difference among Decline-to-States and conservative Hispanic voters, at least among those who had a chance to read (1) Democrats and Republicans: Contrasted, or (2) En Su Corazon, Es Usted Una Democratica o Un Republican? Or In Your Heart, Are You A Democrat or a Republican? Our Hispanic Outreach chair Delores Chavez-Harmes has been meeting with many Hispanic groups and educating them to what Republicans really stand for. Because there are variations of opinion in our membership on the illegal immigration issue, we are working with the Romney campaign and RWF clubs to insure our statements are positive, practical and mutually Southern Division is proud of its many delegates and alternate delegates, guests and volunteers who are attending the Republican National Committee in Tampa, Florida in August. It sounds like the place to be, especially now that the Supreme Court has betrayed the Constitution. Boy, do we have a cause to fight for now!

We are a Division with eight counties, of varying sizes; LACFRW is the largest with 34 clubs, San Diego next with 24, then Orange with 20, Riverside 10, San Bernardino 7, Ventura 7, and Santa Barbara 4. And Imperial, 0, at least so far. Together we are over 9000 tremendous Republican Women I am so proud of. Here are a few highlights from our counties:

Los Angeles County – President Joy Bliss. LACFRW under leadership of Patti Adair, Ways & Means VP, has successfully raised enough funds to expand the booth at the Los Angeles County Fair. Faces of the Federation (our hard-working members) and the Republican Party are going to be hard to miss. Did you know the Federation began in Los Angeles in 1923 when Mrs. Florence Collins Porter organized the Los Angeles Republican Study Club? South Bay RWF, the first official RWF club in Los Angeles, is starting the countdown for its 75th Diamond Jubilee in 2013? And Fundraising. http://www.lacfrw.org

Imperial County – President Pro-Tem Chris Flynn. Keep your fingers crossed. We are close to either reactivating an old RWF club in Imperial County, or starting a new one. Chris Flynn, the 2nd VP for Southern Division, is determined, and ladies in Imperial are on board. Better yet, pray for our success. Not yet fundraising.

San Diego County - President Lynn Ann Reagan. The Del Mar County Fair’s month-long booth under Mary Humphrey’s leadership is fully "wo-manned" with three shifts a day. Voter registration is up, and a new RWF is trying to bloom. President Lynn has called a Club President Council to coordinate all aspects of club activities, communications, and election efforts. And Fundraising.

Orange County- President Sue Hamilton. OCFRW also has a month long fair, and almost all of the clubs are involved in voter registration at the many local city events. Voter registration has never been more important, and the Orange County ladies know this. And Fundraising. The largest club in the country has its home in Orange County: Huntington Harbour RWF. http://www.ocrfw.org

Riverside County– President Lynette Simonson. The ten RWF clubs in this mountainous and desert region are actively registering voters and opening headquarters. There are several Assembly seat battles in this region that are bringing in the CRP and the RNC. Communication between the clubs and the County is excellent, and the clubs support each other. Many of the clubs have year-round Caring for America projects that warm the hearts of their communities. A highlight is the prize-winning Riverside RWF Dictionary Project. And Fundraising.

San Bernardino County – President Kathy Faxon. Out of the seven clubs in this other mountainous and desert county, only Lake Arrowhead RWF meets in the summer time: Their dark period is the snow season! Membership is ahead from the same time last year, can you believe? So tell us, Kathy, what are you doing so very right? There is also an upcoming county-wide pancake breakfast Candidates’ Forum that everyone is going to, such a good idea for a summer election-related activity. And fundraising.

Ventura County – President Daryl Reynolds. Camarillo Las Posas RWF is having David Horowitz as their Sept speaker, so expect another huge meeting. Watch out, Huntington Harbour RWF (Orange County), this club will soon be the second largest club in the state, and who knows where they will go from there. Voter registration is a given in this active county. And Fundraising.

Santa Barbara County – President Gretchen Pfaff. Fighting local voter fraud is #1 on the SBCRWF’s agenda, after revelations of over 120% voter turnout near college campuses in 2010. R.I.T.A RWF is formally requesting a Santa Barbara grand jury investigation. They are also working on an Election Integrity Project whose aim is to clean up the voter rolls by checking for duplicate names, false names, inaccuracies, etc. #2 is GOTV, with an RNC and the NRCC funded Victory 2012 headquarters. The clubs are coordinating their efforts. Their main focus is on the Congressional race between Lois Capps (D) and Abel Maldonado ®. The bottom line for Southern Division is that our members and clubs are working efficiently and effectively, using local issues, races, talents for fundraising, and boots-on-the ground that will lead to the all-important success coming our way.

Our challenge to win in November increased 100-fold with the shocking and radical decision from Chief Justice John Roberts permitting unlimited taxing powers to government, iconized by Obamacare (what one friend calls CommieCare). We have been handed the gauntlet, and we will fight to the end.
I am here to protect Moslem women and non-Moslem women around world -- to stop inhuman controlling of women.

To be clear, we cherish Moslems who are patriotic in their defense of our Constitution and in defense of equal rights for all people.

We are a grass roots political group with a purpose.  Our purpose is to educate our fellow Americans and to provide leadership in areas that are very important to America, and to its future.

Look to England, to France, to Denmark, to Belgium, Norway, Italy, and Spain to see the destructive impact of religious colonialism in those and other countries.

This religion is also a political system, and a social system.  It has at its core the total subjugation of all of the people of the earth by any means.  Aggressive and violent, this religion has bigoted and biased rules that they want to impose on everyone.

Those sets of rules are called Sharia.

Under sharia, women are property, to be used, to be bought, to be sold, to be beaten or abused as their owner or husband wishes.  We would have very few rights.  Under sharia, there are over forty justifications to beat women, and rules for how to beat us.  (Sharia comes from the Koran)

Sharia is already here in the United States and it is spreading like a cancer.  Several states have taken steps to counter this cancer.  California is lagging behind in this area and needs to step up before we lose our rights, our civilization.

Killing wives, daughters, sisters, mothers for “honor” is a common practice approved under sharia, and it is happening in America.  Forced marriages of girls as young as six is approved under sharia.

We must lead our fellow Californians -- in establishing laws prohibiting judgments based on sharia in our courts and other official capacities.

We are circulating a petition that we ask everyone to sign and turn in, and that everyone make more copies to have others (neighbors & friends) sign them and to please forward them to Nam-Yong Horn.  In turn, these signed petitions will be turned over to the CRP (California Republican Party) who will use these as support for enacting legislation that will protect all of us from sharia.

Send signed petitions to Nam-Yong Horn, P O Box 2335, Menifee, CA 92586

If you have or know anyone who hires or supervises people in a workplace, please go the web site, www.jamesehorn.com and free download (15 pages) the document explaining how to manage religion in the workplace. Businesses are applying this document to their employment policies, and find that managing religion in the workplace is the responsible, professional way to deal with this issue.
There are a few women missing from this page, their opponent is another Republican!
If your club would like to have a presence on the internet by having a club website CFRW’s website was built to accommodate you.

Currently we have 14 clubs or counties under the CFRW website umbrella (plus 4 more about the launch). This year we are ready to sign up more clubs under the CFRW website umbrella. Take a look at these sites for style and format.

WHAT YOU GET.....

Currently we have 2 templates to choose from. Each of them can be personalized with color, by using the color wheel, and content since you actually input text, pictures, images etc. onto the site.

You do not have to know HTML since the website automatically changes your regular text into HTML.

You can upload images (JPEG), flyers, bylaws and newsletters.

You can upload your own logo and list a SLOGAN on the templates.

You can make the page so that MEMBERS ONLY can see what is on a specific page, or leave it open to the public.

It is most important to make sure that you find someone that will keep your website up-to-date. It doesn’t take a lot of time and as I said it is easy to do.

Our websites are really a “resource” for our members. The Home Page usually just tells something about our organization and when and where we are meeting. It is a place for your members to go to get up-to-date information about what is happening in your club, your activities.

And “social media” – Facebook and Twitter logos can be placed on the site.

YouTube – you have the ability to place a link to a YouTube video on the site, for a demo go to...... http://www.cfrwsoutherndivision.org/index.cfm/youthadvocacyprogram/

SUBMIT AN EVENT – calendar on website.

The CFRW website has a calendar section for each club to advertise/post their upcoming meetings. Please take the time to post your meetings. Go to http://www.cfrw.org/index.cfm/submit_an_event.htm, fill out the form and submit.

If you don’t have a website it is easy to join.

COST:

Congratulations to Atascadero RWF member Debbie Arnold, the new 5th District Supervisor for SLO County Board of Supervisors.

Plumas County has a huge yard sale to raise money AND they collect socks and underwear for the women and children in the battered women’s shelter.

Tehachapi RWF will have a fund raiser on July 4 at the Tehachapi Hot Dog Festival.

Great idea—Escondido RWF raise money with a bake sale in November. What woman wouldn’t want a little help with the baking, especially this year after the November election. This sounds like a great way for clubs to raise a little money and help out our Republican women pals.

Escalon RWF will work on voter registration on July 13 & 14 at the Escalon Lion’s Annual Park Fete.

Stanislaus East RWF women collected funds to purchase white carnations to put on the graves at the San Joaquin Valley National Cemetery at Santa Nella. This year they were able to purchase over 2,000 carnations, next year they hope to double that amount. The flowers are placed the Saturday before Memorial Day—it is there way of saying “Thank You.”

A Little of This, A Little of That

Conservatives and liberals approach almost every issue with completely different philosophies, underlying assumptions, and methods. That's why it's so hard to find genuine compromise between conservatism and liberalism -- because not only are liberals almost always wrong, their solutions almost always make things worse.

With that in mind, let me take a few moments to explain some of the key differences between liberals and conservative to you.

Bonus) Conservatives believe that judges should act like umpires instead of legislating from the bench. That means that judges should determine whether laws are permissible under the Constitution and settle debates about the meaning of laws, not impose their will based on their ideological leanings. Liberals view judges as a backdoor method of getting unpopular left-leaning legislation passed. They don't want umpires, they want political partisans in black robes who will side with them first and then come up with a rationale to explain it.

7) Conservatives believe that abortion ends the life of an innocent child and since we believe that infanticide is wrong, we oppose abortion. Most liberals, despite what they'll tell you, believe that abortion ends the life of an innocent child, but they prefer killing the baby to inconveniencing the mother.

6) Conservatives believe in confronting and defeating enemies of the United States before they can harm American citizens. Liberals believe in using law enforcement measures to deal with terrorism, which means that they feel we should allow terrorists to train, plan, and actually attempt to kill Americans before we try to arrest them -- as if you can just send the police around to pick up a terrorist mastermind hiding in Iran or the wilds of Pakistan.

5) Conservatives, but not necessarily Republicans (which is unfortunate), believe it's vitally important to the future of the country to reduce the size of government, keep taxes low, balance the budget, and get this country out of debt. Liberals, and Democrats for that matter, believe in big government, high taxes, and they have never met a new spending program they didn't like, whether we will have to go into debt to pay for it or not.

4) Conservatives believe that government, by its very nature, tends to be inefficient, incompetent, wasteful, and power hungry. That's why we believe that the government that governs least, governs best. Liberals think that the solution to every problem is another government program. Even when those new programs create new problems, often worse than the ones that were being fixed in the first place, the solution is always....you guessed it, another government program.

3) Conservatives are patriotic, believe that America is a great nation, and are primarily interested in looking out for the good of the country. That's why we believe in "American exceptionalism" and "America first." Liberals are internationalists who are more concerned about what Europeans think of us and staying in the good graces of the corrupt bureaucrats who control the UN than looking out for the best interests of this nation.

2) Conservatives, most of them anyway, believe in God and think that the Constitution has been twisted by liberal judges to illegitimately try to purge Christianity from the public square. We also believe, most of us anyway, that this country has been successful in large part because it is a good, Christian nation and if our country ever turns away from the Lord, it will cease to prosper. Liberals, most of them anyway, are hostile to Christianity. That's why, whether you're talking about a school play at Christmas time, a judge putting the Ten Commandments on the wall of his court, or a store employee saying "Merry Christmas" instead of "Happy Holidays," liberals are dedicated to driving reminders of Christianity from polite society.

1) Conservatives believe in pursuing policies because they're pragmatic and because they work. Liberals believe in pursuing policies because they're "nice" and make them feel good. Whether the policies they're advocating actually work or not is of secondary importance to them.
